Oh, Whoa

I don't remember a bit
Try to rewind all of it Runnin' around runnin' around, last night was so damn easy
I think we broke all the rules,
Got loud and acted the fool
Runnin' around runnin' around, last night was so damn
easy

Lets take a step back, where did I lose track now It's just a set back, I'm on a new track now
Remember when I said

Turn the lights down on this town, runnin' around,
runnin' around, last night was so damn easy Playing king without a crown, runnin' around runnin'
around, last night was so damn easy
And when the night is over we'll still be singing together

Missed calls and lost all my keys Somebody stole my ID
Runnin' around runnin' around, last night was so damn
easy
That was a hell of a night, we shut that party down
Remember when I said

Turn the lights down on this town, runnin' around,
runnin' around, last night was so damn easy
Playing king without a crown, runnin' around runnin'
around, last night was so damn easy
And when the night is over we'll still be singing
together

When the night seems to have no end
Know the sun will always rise on a new day
Its a new day
Oh Whoa
Oh Whoa

Turn the lights down on this town
Last night was so damn easy

Playing king without a crown, runnin' around runnin'
around, last night was so damn easy
And when the night is over we'll still be singing
together
And when the night is over we'll still be singing
together
