The Faders
"Girls Can Make You Cry"

You bite your lip
You keep pretending that
Your made out of stone
You never let it show
But everyone knows
Gilrs can make you cry
You find it hard
To open up so you walk away
It don't matter where you go
'Cos everybody knows
Girls can make you cry

Don't try
To make me feel
I should be weaker
You'll find
It's you that's wrapped
Around my finger
'Cos deep inside
Girls can make you cry

You act so tough
You like to think
You're indestructible
But it only takes one blow
Everybody knows
Girls can make you cry
Deep inside
You got emotions that
Are running wild
But it's out of your control
And everybody knows
Girls can make you cry

So don't try
To make me feel
I should be weaker
You'll find
It's you that's wrapped
Around my finger
'Cos deep inside
Girls can make you cry

Even when you're hurting
I wonder why you
Just act like every other guy
But I'm not joking
'Cos i know
Girls can make you cry

So don't try
To make me feel
I should be weaker
You'll find
It's you that's wrapped
Around my finger
You can't deny
Don't try to fight
'Cos deep inside
Girls can make you cry
