

The Famine "Unending Silence"

Visit "Unending Silence" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm alone, all alone, creeping years
The seed now sleeps in me
To my bitter end I've seen the world
It tells me I'm alone
My pillowed head wakes the dead
The dead asleep in me
Dying days, idle ways
This seed now sleeps in me

I'm falling, it fades away
Unending silence, today's the day
I'm sinking, you held me down
To show that my arms were broken

Alone, dead alone, showing fear
The seed still sleeps in me
To this bitter end I've seen the world
It tells me I'm alone
My pillowed head wakes the dead
The dead that live in me
Dying days, idle ways
This seed now sleeps in me

You held me down to show my arms were broken

Now I wake the thunder
I turn to hooded hordes
This light deep within me
This is the end of the lie that you fed to me
