Niceness without all of the false pretenses. Modern woman for the times step up

CHORUS

Gal You're the air I breathe. I'll give you all I got

Absolutely my 21st Century Fox

This ain't no fantasy, Believe these words or not

Nothing too much for my 21st Century Fox

Hidden dreams unfulfilled, Broken promises

Nonetheless find yourself holding on to this

Look what you do to me, When you get running hot

I risk it all for my 21st Century Fox

Vocemail on the telephone, She calling, She bawling

She no like how the Bad Man give all a de gal dem better ideas about the way

Them coulda reach the pleasure zone, This session's direction was designed to Present the vibes inna the brightest light

Hold your questions please, let vanity take over, as I make these gals get over

This power is dangerous

You want to call it sex appeal, but I prefer to keep it real

It's just the control that they hold over me, my weakness you know the deal

So much could be said over the version

But then some truths are better left unspoken, you know...

CHORUS

What the heart wants it's always so hard to say

What we need is so close, but so far away

While it's raining all thru the chambers of broken hearts me tell you no use complaining

Only time makes that feel better now.

Want to put things back together now? Want shelter from the bad weather now?

Get wetter now, That's better now, at least the makeup is entertaining

Gal you better better believe that you done recieve the best treatment you could ever find

Give it to you like that, I'll blow your mind... If HE no work it like that it's a waste of time ZULU the bad man right here now living the life of the good guy, who finished last and said goodbye
To the world of decency... recently
Well you know dem seh nice guy finish last
That is the last time that will ever happen to me
No longer victim of broken heart circumstance
Turn the tables, you understand? Watch it Right now come back with the version

CHORUS

Something new reaching out I just got to know
Feeling trapped in a game and it's on a roll

Celebrating days of excess... No worries this journey is only for the privileged Live life on the very edge. Never giving to regrets Disorder... ? Who'll start a sensual situation right here now?
Gyal... It'll Blow your mind, Break your heart
You no ready for this.
