"Connor"

You found a way
To change the world
The simple gift for
Every boy and girl
Always a piece
For everyone
You showed them all that
Giving can be fun
Giving can be fun

Connor
You got the life I want
Connor
I got it all so wrong
You'll never know
Connor
You got the life I want
You got the life I want
You got the life I want
Connor

Those poisoned pills
We passed them round
They made us heavy
Pulled us to the ground
But you were built
From beams of sun
Naive and unaffected by
A world that's come undone
Oh what can be done?

Connor
You got the life I want
Connor
I got it all so wrong
You'll never know
Connor
You got the life I want
You got the life I want
You got the life I want

Connor

Connor

You got the life I want

Connor

I got every thing wrong

You'll never know

Connor

You got the life I want

You got the life I want

You got the life
