Leave me out of it,
You're alone and that's your thing,
Yeh that's your thing,
And I don't hear your voice,
You're alone and that's your choice
Baby, that's your choice.

If I put my name upon it,
Maybe no-one else will want it,
Baby I can keep it to myself
(She said)
You don't know what love is till you've had mine,
You don't know what love is till you've had mine,
Don't know what love is till you've had mine.

You don't know what love is till you've had mine,
You don't know what love is till you've had mine,
Don't know what love is till you've had mine,
I'm coming through your door soon I'll have you calling
out for more.

Leave me out of it,
Don't fool yourself 'cause now you're free,
You're free,
Leave me out,
There's a thousand things that you can be,
Without me.

If you put your name upon it,
Maybe no-one else will want it,
Baby you can keep it to yourself.

You don't know what love is till you've had mine,
You don't know what love is till you've had mine,
Don't know what love is till you've had mine.

You don't know what love is but you need some,
A crack in your heart that can't be undone,
You don't know what love is till you've had mine,
I'm coming through your door soon I'll have you calling
out for more,

I'm coming through your door soon I'll have you calling
out for more.

You don't know what love is till you've had mine,
You don't know what love is till you've had mine,
Don't know what love is till you've had mine.

You don't know what love is but you need some,
A crack in your heart that can't be undone,
You don't know what love is till you've had mine,
I'm coming through your door soon I'll have you calling
out for more.
(X2)

I'm coming through your door soon I'll have you calling
out for more.
(X3)

Leave me out of it,
You're alone and that's your thing,
Baby, that's your thing.
