Can't see the light
Can't reinhibit my mind
Lying on the ice cold floor
My mind slipping out of the celladoor
I'm flipping the sides
I'm still alive, here
My close eyes move
I'm on top of a roof
The sillent deserted dream
A shining light that I can't reach
Didn't you hear my heart beat
Awake and asleep, awake and asleep

Waisting my time, awake but not alive
Never crossing the line, waisting... my life

Demons have tied me to the bed, drinking my wine
Drinking my wine, and burning in my scars
The silent speach, the last I felt
Reminded me that, I'm not in hell, yet
Didn't you hear my heart beat, awake and asleep

Waisting my time, awake but not alive
Never crossing the line, waisting... my life

Vulture circling above my head
Waiting to feast on my shell
Still wanna live, don't wanna end
Don't wanna let it fucking end like this...

Bring it

Waisting my time, awake but not alive
Never crossing the line, waisting... my life
