Oi
You must understand
That I have got the right
To say just what I like
You try to move us on
And we've done nothing wrong
We won't be gone for long

What have we done to you?
What have we don't to you?

You didn't like the way we hung around in town
And you couldn't leave us alone to be ourselves
You made our lives like hell
And we hadn't done anything wrong
You thought that we were weak
But we turned out to be strong

Oi
You might think that you are going to be the best
But you ain't seen the rest
You try to move us on
And we've done nothing wrong
We won't be gone for long

What have we done to you?
What have we don't to you?

You didn't like the way we hung around in town
And you couldn't leave us alone to be ourselves
You made our lives like hell
And we hadn't done anything wrong
You thought that we were weak
But we turned out to be strong

We han't anything wrong
We han't anything wrong
We han't anything wrong
We han't anything wrong

You didn't like the way we hung around in town
And you couldn't leave us alone to be ourselves

You made our lives like hell
And we hadn't done anything wrong
You thought that we were weak
But we turned out to be...

You didn't like the way we hung around in town
And you couldn't leave us alone to be ourselves
You made our lives like hell
And we hadn't done anything wrong
You thought that we were weak
But we turned out to be strong
