

The Final Burden "Doppelgangers"

Falling away from myself
Flailing on a downward spiral
Murderous treachery I am becoming two Switch back and forth
Tyranny of a king and innocence of a slave
Further pushing limits of my mind
I have parted ways with my empty soul in the name of sacrifice
Soul over life
I have parted ways with my empty soul in the name of
In a mental daze stimulating the thoughts of others misfortunes
And raining down on the children of innocence
Stimulating the thoughts of others misfortunes
Anguish
Inside the fornication of soulless bodies drained
Dry of logic
Sorry to those who will fall for me shed a tear
From the sorrow filled eyes
Dirty their hands for me
Dirty their hands for me
Peel back the ever changing skin
