We've come untied,
We've got no time,
This is the line that you never cross,
For you've crossed everyone,
They want to see you come undone,
They're watching you now,
You've done it again,
They caught you dreaming,
They caught you sleeping again.
Hey, you've got no friends,
Keep yourself at a distance,
Cuz you're always leaving,
You're always dreaming,
You're always leaving anyway.
They'd kill for a piece of you, eat you alive, chew you up, eat you up, but you can't let it go.
