I can't dance casue the clubs too full don't understand cause the DJ's dull I...showed up at half past ten now my life can begin again I....get a drink chew on wine sir is up to the end of the line I.... look around and all i see is everybody is staring at me ohhh..

could it be my goochi shoes?
could it be my new hair due?
could it be my brighter pants?
or could it be that you don't have a chance? ....ahoooh ooh

I see a friend across the club who walking over and sholder rub talk about that we don't care and.... why we both don't want to be there ohh small talk used to make me ill thats all changed now im all packed
