Who sold blues in the sound of the drumbeat?
Work out your cares to the rhythm of dancing feet
Yeah you got it, so boldly let it go now
Well old man worry just ain't got a chance now

Hey little miss sad
Stop sitting alone and blue
C'mon and smile
I wanna dance with you

Hey little miss sad
Everything's gonna be alright
Forget your cares
We're gonna dance all night

Who sold blues in the sound of the drumbeat?
Work out your cares to the rhythm of dancing feet
Yeah you got it, so boldly let it go now
Well old man worry just ain't got a chance now

Hey little miss sad
Keep dancing the blues away
Just twist and shout
You know it'll be okay

Hey little miss sad
All the fellas are watching you
Aren't you happy now
They wanna dance with you

Who sold blues in the sound of the drumbeat?
Work out your cares to the rhythm of dancing feet

No go on and dance
I wanna dance
Go on and dance...
