I wake up in the dark, nobody sees me there
I can see my heart lying on the pillow there
Once I knew this girl, it's how I lost my innocence
All my fruitless words cannot bring that girl back again
Not this time, now or never now

But when the lights go down on you
Don't be scared
Because it doesn't really matter at all
You're dead

Now is therre anybody home at all, at all?
Is therre anybody home at all, at all?
Ah-ooh-ah-ooh-ow, ah-ooh-ah-ow-ow

My eyes they look around, searching for some stimulant
And what it is I've found, stops my mind from making sense
The turn I took was wrong, and now I can't go back again
I'm where you put me now, so you should watch your back my friend
Now or ne'er, now or never now

But when the lights go down on you
Don't be scared
Because it doesn't really matter at all
You're dead

Now when the lights go down,

When the lights go down x12

When the lights go down on you
