Black is everything
Pull me right out of reality
The emptiness that's me
Black is everything
Put me right out of my misery
Do what you want to me
Life outside goes on
The world is crashing inside out
Gently hacking off the hinges
Erase the space, erase the memory
Missing time
What I don't know will never hurt me
Missing time
Cannot forget cannot remember
Missing time
This information is forever
Missing time
Black is everything
Got the answer right in front of me
It's everything I see
Time outside moves on
The world I know is crumbling down
Bringing to a lost sensation
Erase the space, erase the memory
Missing time
What I don't know will never hurt me
Missing time
Cannot forget cannot remember
Missing time
This information is forever
Missing time
Erase the space, erase the memory
Missing time
What I don't know will never hurt me
Missing time
Cannot forget cannot remember
Missing time
This information is forever
Missing time
Missing time...
Missing time...
Missing time...

Missing time...
