I wasn't sure if I could go that far
But i never thought I'd crash so hard
Come undone fall apart
I didn't realize what I'd found
But it hit me right when I hit the ground
Screamed at me without a sound
Straight lie to say I'm suprised
Just totally stunned paralyzed
Emotionless hypnotized
Something inside of my head
Got way too good at being bad
Way too good at being bad
In place of hope
There should be fear
There's signs and signals everywhere
Transmuted
Information
Transmutating
The equation
Transmutate
No clue what exactly occurred
But the vision's fogged and the memory's blurred
I am hearing things I've never heard
Don't know how long it's been
But something new crawls under my skin
Something strange creeping in
In place of hope
There should be fear
There's signs and signals everywhere
In place of hope
There should be fear
There's signs and signals everywhere
Transmuted
Information
Transmutating
The equation
Transmuted
Information
Transmutating
The equation
The world is eluding
The future is ruling

You are denying Transmutation
Is consuming
Transmutate
Shape shift of a punished mind
Another broken heart beating overtime
