Girl, if your heart is broken beyond repair
Pick up the pieces and say a little prayer
And I bet you get the one who loves you
Baby and I bet, you get the one who needs you, girl
I bet you get the one who loves you

Girl, if time is getting longer and life is getting shorter
And you need someone to hold your hand
Baby, I bet you get the one that loves you
Baby, I bet, you get the one that needs you, girl
I bet you get the one who loves you

Baby, you got to get the guy that loves you
Hey, girl, just give him a chance
He's got a heart full of love and romance
He's gonna make you forget the past
He'll give you love, he'll give you love that's got to last

And I bet you get the one who loves you
Hey baby, I bet you get the one that needs you, girl
I bet you get the one who loves you, Lord

Girl, now, can't you see?
This guy in love with you just might be me
Baby, don't you understand
That I wanna be your loving man
I bet you get the one that loves you
I bet you get the one that needs you

I bet you get the one
I bet you get the one
I bet you get the one
