

The Foreshadowing "Enchanted Island"

True love is
An enchanted island
And we have found that island
From which we'll never roam

We stand on
An enchanted island
A magic yours and my land
That we can call our home

If all around
We found a sea of faces
I know your smiling face
Is the only one I'd see

True love is
An enchanted island
And we're upon that island
Wherever we may be

If all around
We found a sea of faces
I know your smiling face

True love is
An enchanted island
And we're upon that island
Wherever we may be
