They tell me that I'm not your one-and-only
I wouldn't know, I only know I love you
They tell me you may leave me sad and lonely
It may be so, I only know I love you

They tell me to get ready to forget you
That's what they say, I only know I love you
They tell me I'll be sorry that I met you
But, come what may, I only know I love you

I'm not the one to look into the future
I don't know what your heart may have in view
My darling, I only know that I love you

I'm not the one to look into the future
I don't know what your heart may have in view
My darling, I only know that I love you

My darling, I only know that I love you
