Follow me
Never look behind
And like me, you'll find
Your fountain of youth

Are you searching for something
Called the Fountain of Youth
Do you yearn for eternal love
At the Fountain of Youth

Is it West of the mountains
Is it East of the moon
Is it over the hills of May
By the meadows of June

Oh, how, I search
Never giving up
Following my heart til
One day you smiled and
You stole my heart away

In that wonderful moment
I discovered this truth
I discovered that love
Is the Fountain of Youth

Follow me
Never look behind
And like me, you'll find
Your fountain of youth
