You're mine
I see it in your dreamy eyes
I hear it in your breathless sigh
They whisper you're mine

You're mine
I feel it in your warm embrace
The blush that glows upon your face
It shows me you're mine

Only you can ignite the flame within my heart
Only you have I loved and adored from the start

You're mine
I'll never let you get away
I'll cling to you until the day
I hear you say, you're mine

Only you can ignite the flame within my heart
Only you have I loved and adored from the start

You're mine
I'll never let you get away
I'll cling to you until the day
I hear you say, you're mine
