(Slade) figure since im so far gone, oceans away i can lay my saber down today i still miss the words i love the words you did not say miss the kiss you never gave away there goes the sun oceans away and days die young when you?re gone and you?re gone

and leaves the day for someone else honestly i thought that we could make it all the way barefoot on beaches dancing against the grain but stone by stone the castle crumbled to the ground i stood and stared as you started fall into the waves

gone

here's to the man of your dreams i take it all in a box and make my way down to the shore throw it in and begin to leave it to the waves Leave it to the waves
Leave it to the
