Can hear you calling, calling
See the rain falling, falling
Tonight I want to stay with you
Tonight I want to play with you
Tonight I want to dance with you
Tonight I want to lie with you tonight

From the northern bastions the wind is coming
The coldest season's perfume is all around
Dusk is like a dagger that suffocates our lives
It's colour is sunburst in my eyes
My eyes
In my eyes...

I can hear you calling, calling
See the rain falling, falling
Tonight I want to stay with you
Tonight I want to play with you
Tonight I want to dance with you
Tonight I want to lie with you tonight

From the northern bastions the wind is coming
The coldest season's perfume is all around
Dusk is like a dagger that suffocates our lives
It's colour is sunburst in my eyes
My eyes
In my eyes...
