I've lost feeling in my hands and in my feet.
All the blood is rushing to my heart and it made it skip
a beat.
It's the feeling, knowing you will hold me close.
Through the coldest nights of winter, and I can only hope that you will
be there with me when the whole world caves in.
Sift through the debris to find me.

I've said I love you so many times before,
but I've never said it and meant it any more than I do
now.

The nights grow longer but it seems I'm sleeping less.
I toss and turn without you near me and in the morning
I'm a mess.
But I'm stronger with you right by my side.
I become a better person.
And I can only hope you will
be there with me when the whole world caves in.
Sift through the debris to find me.

I've said I love you so many times before,
now.
No, I've never said it and meant it any more than I do
now.

I'm not a crook but I've stolen many glances.
Our hearts and eyes they meet.
I look at you and you put me in a trance.
Nothing can compete.

I've lost feeling in my hands and in my feet.
All the blood has rushed to my heart and it made it skip
a beat.
It's the feeling, knowing you will hold me close as the nights get longer but it seems I'm sleeping less.
I toss and turn without you near me and in the morning
I'm a mess.
But I'm stronger.
I'm stronger.
