Life once seemed so perfect.
Even I believed in the storybook tale.
Now it's become apparent I was naive when things began to fail.

But you're always there to pull us from the wreckage.
I know I can count on you.
The weight of the whole world is on your shoulders.
I know i can count on you.

You can be the one who saves us all
when everything we've come to know just falls apart.
But don't forget to save yourself.
Whisper reassuring words that we should have known
right from the start.

I've seen you bend, don't let me break.
You know exactly, what's at stake.
Worlds collide, cities fall.
I know we will come through it all.
But you're the one that holds it all together.
I know I can count on you.
You're strength of mind and heart can not be measured.
I know i can count you.

You can be the one who saves us all
when everything we've come to know just falls apart.
But don't forget to save yourself.
right from the start.

When this is over, I can look back and smile.
Because you gave it all so we would never know.

But you're always there to pull us from the wreckage.
I know I can count on you.
The weight of the whole world is on your shoulders.
I know I can count on you.
But you're the one who holds it all together.
I know I can count on you.
Your strength of mind and heart can not be measured.

I know I can count on you...
