I have lost my mind
I have lost all heart in this because I just want to start over this again
It was a simple question so, why can't you understand!?

I will take this match and lighter
And make love with kerosene
Emilate my damn body
And set this place ablaze!

Is it so bad to get what I need?
This conversation has gone stale
What do you want from me!?
I will take my time in taking you down
These sirens blare only for the sake of sound!
I will take this match and lighter
And make love with kerosene
Emilate my damn body
And set this place ablaze!
