why doesn't anyone care about how I feel inside no one's even listening no one hears me cry why should I even explain what's going on in my mind nothing takes away the pain atleast nothing I can buy you were the one for me atleast that's what I thought until I looked in your eyes and found what you haven't caught you usta be SO COOL now you're NOTHING at all why could I not see before... before you made me fall and now that I'm over this and my brain's spilled on the floor you can try what you want but I'll always hate you
