"Fade Away"

You fade away.
Don't come back now.
Not mine today.
No tomorrow.
I didn't even catch your name.
But it doesn't matter anyway.
You fade away.
Where will you go now?
Now that your gone.
I feel the sorrow.
Why does everyone have to change?
The bottle doesn't do a damn thing.
You fade away.
Don't come back now.
Not your's today.
No tomorrow.
I didn't even catch your name.
Now you'll never be the same
You fade away.
You fade away.
No more to say.
You fade away.
Where is the sunshine in my life?
It burned long before it's time.
