Ripped another socket in my head standing on my heels one more way to rearrange my mind fall instead Don't need to plug my chest into the wall as if you need to know why my feet are sticking to the ground instead I fall Connect myself to you with this machine no need for me to breathe hide away the noise from in my chest I'm never seen
When I am king, I'll heal all my flaws taken from the sun all myself and standing 10 feet high then I fall Standing ten feet tall to touch the sky still studdering my name broken bones make way for me to stay I plug myself
