And I'm still here staring at the sky
Looking for the answers
To all these questions never replied to

I'm still waiting for you to come
I'd rather bleed than live my life without you

And this pain I won't face that broken by the days
I'm terrified and so confused

Confused and cancelled terrified and abused

And I'm still here staring at the sky
Looking for the answers
To all these questions never replied to

I'm still waiting for you to come
I'd rather die than live my life without you

And this pain I won't face that broken by the days
I'm terrified and so confused
I felt abused and cancelled

Confused and cancelled terrified and abused
