This beat that the devil today
Has nurtured and fostered
Is inspired by the powers of hell
And there are young people that are in these rock groups that are Pulling off their clothes in full view of thousands of young people
There asks the question when police dare not step in with the air thick
With marijuana smoke, a hundred thousand kids! The huge speakers that Beat off the music as dope-filled entertainers and performers beat upon The guitars and drums and the strings. Those young people that ripped
Off their clothes and acted like animals

They said it's the music
It's the music
They said it's the music
It's the music
They said it's the music
It's the music
They said it's the music
It's the music

And I really didn't know what I was doing, they said
I just pulled off my clothes and I had to do it

They said it's the music
It's the music
They said it's the music
It's the music
They said it's the music
It's the music
They said it's the music
It's the music
