"Rest-Stop"

what have you done this time?
you've done a bad, bad thing you ran your can into the ground
what have you done this time?
you done a foul, foul thing did you have to run them around? you can make a little tent run for student government oh, you're so irreverent you're the only gang I've met that was how the night was spent in a little luncheonette at the rest-stop with my friends
what have you done this time?
you've done a bad, bad thing you're locked out of your garage
what have you done this time?
you've done a foul, foul thing you've learned another language there's a trucker by a jeep he could shoot you in the street making faces through the screen while he pumped his gasoline there's a fight at 8:15 every evening of the week at the rest-stop where we meet put your cup down and let's get serious he fell in love out of who he thought she was and he's been telling me she can't live up man, i'm glad we can talk about this stuff

what have you done this time?
you're making jokes with your friends
what have you done this time?
you've done a foul-mouthed thing you're at the rest-stop again
