The Game - Throug my Eyes

Verse 1. (The Game)

Life aint fair and sumtimes it get black like the nike airs and thats when i go back, back where?
to the block where the trains never stop cuz its hard to "???" that the dream is beeing on top and you already there so you look down into the city and see life aint what it used to be kids fanatise about how a phantom rides if you can track a star then welcome to the interprise hop in the spaceship and fly fly away pas the clouds where marvin gaye and 2pac stay you never wanna come back like jam master jay matter fact close your eyes and lets pass away.

Chorus:

Uuuuh,If You could see straight trough my eyes then let this world tomorrow say goodbye
If you Could take one thing with you, what could it be..
with you, with you,

you wouldnt be here in this if it wasnt for lupe he inspired what i wrote, bought hes album today then i threw it in my car let the CD play "you All Superstars" What the CD say and on the early this morning i like stevie jay making love to the music
like my stevie play when i rap the hood listen Ghetto Tv jay and the devil try hard just to see my break thats when i switch switch cars and i cross my heart knowing that im gods son like the belly of nas i used to dream hard about beeing in them belly with nas even the ghetto mozart couldnt play that part like the Eli Mannings when they play that hard everybody aint a giant but the play that card[Through My Eyes Lyrics On ] and that card is dealt and them blows are felt like a Mayweather jab that land below the belt

Chorus:

then let this world tomorrow say goodbye
If you Could take one thing with you, what could it be..
with you, with you,

Light a candle in the dark and make yourself to the light and when your' there blow it out so you can sleep through the night the sun rise in the morning and you future gets bright bright as the ice in my ears like a movie premier and you can be Denzel cuz your eyes could tell that you can memorize your lines without reading your script and you can walk through the force while you're standing still you might get lucky like force 20 million a field with that you buy your self a football field or fullfill dreams for kids who got that skill marry a legend like jada if you got that will but laugh now, cry later if you pop that pill seen fun for a moment but its not that real cuz you life is icecold and you got that chill so tomorrow when you wake and spinn that wheel just remember what i told you from on top of that hill

Chorus!:

If you Could take one thing with you, what could it be..
with you, with you,
