Down the road came a Junco Partner boy he was loaded as can be he was knocked out loaded he was wobbling all over the street Singing 6 months aint no sentence yeh and 1 year aint no time I was born in Angola serving fourteen to ninety-nine Well I wish I had me 1.000.000 dollars just one million to call me own I would raise me (grow for my baby!) a tobacco farm Take a walkÂ...
When I had me a great deal of money had mighty good friends all over town but now I aint got no more money all of my good friends just put me down So IÂ've go to pawn my ratchett and pistol yeh I gotta pawn my watch and chain I would have pawned my sweet Gabriella but the smart girl would not sign her name IÂ'm down getting thirsty o the mighty good beer when IÂ'm dry give me whiskey when IÂ'm thirsty give me head stone when I die Down the road came a Junco Partner
he was wobbling all over the street
