Out in the deep end
I'm alive, not that you would know
Wasted the week-end
Drivin' by places where you go
I know that you like 'em dangerous
And I ain't dangerous enough

I want to be complicated, celebrated
Mysterious, yeah loved and hated
All my life I waited for someone to notice me
Hello world, it's complicated me

Every diamond
Starts it's life as a piece of coal
I ain't a diamond
Just some guy standing in the cold
I'm an obvious victim of circumstance
And I know I ain't got a chance

I want to be complicated...

I know I could walk right up to you
But I'm afraid you'd see right through
You'd see right through
What's the use?

I want to be complicated...
I want to be complicated, emulated
Mysterious, loved and hated
All my life I waited to be taken seriously
Hello world, it's complicated me
