

The Gates Of Slumber

"I'd Believe In God For You"

Visit "I'd Believe In God For You" on MotoLyrics.com

I walked the world alone so long
Lost on my own trip
I had to see it, touch it, taste it
Or it did not exist

I was a faithless man
Empty heart and hand
A tired traveler in a barren land

But I have seen the light
It looks a lot like you
So baby if you ask me to
I'll believe in God for you

The stars are shining down on us
I see it all so clear
I can't remember what it was
I ran from all those years

Now I'm alive again
You are my oxygen
I got more faith than a thousand men

And I have seen the light; it looks a lot like you
And it's your love that pulls me through
Now I realize that all you said was true
So baby when you ask me to
I'll believe in God for you

Beautiful
Miracle

And I have seen the light...

Visit The Gates Of Slumber page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.