All you do is lay around
And keep it to yourself.
How am I to get it out and
Tear open a heart that is broke?
I know you don't know.

Keep it like I thought I should,
You won't get it this time (oh no).
You didn't grow up like I thought you would.
You won't get it this time.

He she says
Oh she thinks it's better than a one way ticket
Away from me I realize
I can't stop shaking I won't
You're breaking these bones
Oh she moves with colors and I that doppler has
Something to do with it
A red shift happens and now I can't get her alone
It's how I get off

Now I'm scared
Oh what you so scared about
Boy, I'm scared.
How am I to get it out?
Don't you know I'm here?
No, you're not.
I've done it before.

Trust and burn me baby,
You're bound to lose your mind.
