Praise the sight
Someone dropped a ball on me
Damn the wind
Giving life to sails

Human sin
Couldn't stir a fire in me
Damn the night
As the powders fail

And one beam of light is failing
From a single crazy eye
Someone burns a name on me
Damn the night
Painted on my eyes

Back to life
Passing through the wall to me
Feel the fire
Violet, black and white

Late tonight
Someone pinned a tail on me
Later on
Someone robbed me blind

Took my life
Took my box of chicken teeth
Take the blame
Trusted enemy
