You can run but you'll never get away from the smell of the garbage

And there's crap on your shoes, and the smell of it is making you happy

And the seeds are exploding and the aphides are eating your garden

And they roll so confused and the thought of it really takes little

Fly like the wind

Ride on and remember to sleep, nobody asked you

Fly like the wind

Ride on and remain on your knees before the rapen
master

I'm right now

And I'm an upholster, sparing the worlds of the future

And the mall of my choice

I am shopping and making a purchase

Fly like the wind

Ride on and remember to sleep, nobody asked you

Fly like the wind

Ride on and remain on your knees before the rapen
master

You can run but you'll never get away from the smell of
the garbage

And there's crap on your shoes and the smell of it is
making you happy

Fly like the wind

Ride on and remember to sleep, nobody asked you

Fly like the wind

Ride on and remain on your knees before the rapen
master

Ride on and remain on your knees before the rapen
master

Ride on and remain on your knees before the rapen
master

Ride on and remain on your knees before the rapen

master
