There was a swirling mass of water that lived in a quiet
pond
It asked permission from its master to visit the lands
beyond
And its master allowed it to fly
So the wind swept the whirlpool across the sky
The whirlpool's mother wore a jacket she'd sewn out of dental floss
It was stolen by a monkey that sold it to an albatross
And it had the idea to fly

so the wind swept the whirlpool across the sky
There was a swirling mass of water that lived in a quiet
pond
It asked permission from its master to visit the lands
And its master allowed it to fly
So the wind swept the whirlpool across the sky
And it had the idea to fly
so the wind swept the whirlpool across the sky
