Look at their eyes, they're watching us so closely.
The secrets disguised, but seductions impulse slips a scream.

This error sends a stare.

This error sends a stare.

Lips stitched tight lets keep it quiet. Lips stitched tight...

Lips stitched tight in the city tonight, lets fall in love but
keep it quiet.

In the city tonight, in the city tonight.

Look at their eyes, they're glowing with crimson deceit.

This is what friends are for, disguised in their temporary

Jetlagged warmth.

Jetlagged warmth.

Lips stitched tight in the city tonight, Lets fall in love but
keep it quiet.

In the city tonight, in the city tonight.

Lets fall in love tonight, under the city sky

Lets fall in love and keep our lips stitched tight.
