OK! Do you want something simple?
OK! Do you want something simple?
OK! Do you want something simple?
OK! Do you want something simple?
The news
Do you want something simple?
The look
Do you want something simple?
The letters
Do you want something simple?
The jokes
Do you want something simple?
The games
Do you want something simple?
The nights
Do you want something simple?
The boys
Do you want something simple?
The girls
Do you want something simple?
The words
Do you want something simple?
The friends
Do you want something simple?
The rest
Do you want something simple?
And sex
Do you want something simple?

Why can't you understand
How I'm feeling now
Why don't you feel me
Why can't you understand
Please open your hand
When you don't know how to do
You want my life
But you've just said no more
Everything is just my fault
The life well done
I can't understand you more, yeah
And I can't understand you more

OK! Do you want something simple?
OK! Do you want something simple?
OK! Do you want something simple?
OK! Do you want something simple?
The films
Do you want something simple?
The songs
Do you want something simple?
And love
Do you want something simple?
The drinks
Do you want something simple?
Art pop
Do you want something simple?
TV
Do you want something simple?
The silence

Why can't you decide
How I'm feeling now
Your heart is following mine
Behind this sacrifice
Can't you see the words
Can't you see the things
But I can go on
Why don't you find another
Why everything looks like a crash
When I used to fall
I can't understand you more
And I can't understand you more

And you cry
And your heart don't cry
And you're sitting
Why can't you feel can't you see
What is happening to me
All the thinking time
All the love you gave it to me
Gave it to me
I can't understand you
Why, why this happens
Why can't you see I'm selling lies
Sitting at a table why
Why you want my life
Why do you want me, yeah
And I can't understand you
I can't understand you
I can't
Why this happening to me
Why this happening
Can't you see now

Can't you see now
Can't you see
I can't understand you
Why
Why this happening to us

This song is too simple
This song is too simple
