I am a god bless tell them my friend
So needless you tried no you won't catch me
I am a god bless tell them my friend
Needless you tried no you won't succeed

Stay there and set up all you plans
Laugh with me in the face then stab at me in the back
But Your conscious soon start ride you am giving your time
For who god bless he said no man shall curse
Digging one pit remember to dig two

I am a god bless tell them my friend
So needless you tried no you won't catch me
I am a god bless tell them my friend
Needless you tried no you won't succeed cause

The longest liver will see the most
I know my house is build on solid ground
So when the wind him it wont come tumbling down
And when the tide rolled I will be riding the storm
The longest liver will see the most
So I know my house is built on solid ground

For I am a god bless tell them my friend
So needless you tried no you won't catch me
I am a god bless tell them my friend
Needless you tried no you won't succeed
