AAAA

What a time what a time we are living in
Come on people let's face it
Too much killing killing weeping and mourning
We no know wha fe do man
Back is against the wall
Wall, yes

But when the clock strike four you must be sure
And ready to pack up your things and go, go I said
'Cause when the click strike eight just be at your gate
And ready to pack up your things
And ready to go oh

We don't really want to keep singing of the past, good
gosh
So let's get ourselves together
I know that the battle can be won

So I say hay aay what a time, what a time we are living in
Come on people let's face it
Too much killing killing weeping and mourning
A we no know wha fe do man
(solo)

We don't really want to keep singing of the past, good
gosh
So let's get ourselves together
I know that the battle can be won.....
