I wont wear your uniform and i wont play the part Stolen dreams and stolen youth but you cannot steal my heart Propagndists piss-pot poor is the moniker and the drone Cant get blood from a broken heart that's turned to fucking stone

They got your new it's on your television

Get on you knees and pray wave the manifesto flag to the wasted generation Corprate sponsored genocide Paid for with consideration by sentries born into this world
To ensure you're dumb and blind casualties of a cola war since 1979

They got your new religion it's on your television
Get on your knees and pray
