I used to be everything I wanted to be
You wanted of me
It's fading slowly
When nothing really mattered
But everything mattered more to me
Your fading slowly

I close my eyes and see you there
Untouched by the pain we shared
But now that's all gone

It's all going through in my head x2

I'm not that boy from your memories
I can't make you happy like him
He's dead and gone
But now there's just me
Trying hard to be
But I guess that's not enough
For you or for me

I close my eyes and see you there
Untouched by the pain we shared
But now that's all gone

It's all going through in my head x2

You beat me down into the ground
But not I'm coming back again
In my head

I close my eyes and see you there
Untouched by the pain we shared
But now that's all gone

It's all going through in my head x2

You beat me down into the ground
But not I'm coming back again
In my head
