And so they say to stay the same
But I don't know,
Because this year will change our ways
And everybody's going state to state
All I wanna do is get away
Oh yeah

And so they say to stay the same
But I don't know,
Because this year will change our ways
And everybody's going state to state
All I wanna do is get away

Well does it show
That I won't go
In the direction expected of me?
Expect me to leave this place.

We're not too young
Just run away now
But we can stay (stay out)
Won't care about (their doubts, their doubts)
I'm falling head over heels for you everyday
Oh Oh

And maybe I can pick up,
Leave this behind
And get a loft on the left west coast.

And maybe you can pick out
A place of anywhere
And baby that's where we can go.

Well does it show
That I won't go
In the direction expected of me?
Expect me to leave this place.

We're not too young
Just run away now
But we can stay (stay out)
Won't care about (their doubts, their doubts)

I'm falling head over heels for you everyday
Oh Oh

We're not too young
Just runaway now
But we can stay (stay out)
Won't care about (their doubts, their doubts)
I'm falling head over heels for you everyday

Just point to anywhere and that is where we'll be
We've got our lives ahead, that's no mystery
Were moving faster now, and no one said it'd be easy.

Maybe you'll take my hand and you'll come with me.
I swear I'll give you anything that you might need.
We're moving faster now and no one said it'd be easy.

We're not too young
Just runaway now
But we can stay (stay out)
Won't care about (their doubts)
I'm falling head over heels for you everyday
Oh

We're not too young
Just runaway now
But we can stay (stay out)
Won't care about (their doubts, their doubts)
I'm falling head over heels for you everyday

Maybe you'll take my hand and you'll come with me.
I swear I'll give you anything that you might need.
We're moving faster now and no one said it'd be easy.
