Here are tongues to speak
From a growing spate
Of accidents and shifts of blame,
From all vantage points,
Cause your next has to be
Classed as a meal in itself.

Monumental your momentum.
For pence we mime all diatribe given to silence.
On your knees it's your ovation
To wait, oblige, ferment behind
A true depth that you would lack anyway.
Retention.

We insist you sever it.
All educate, record your birthday,
Few and far between.
Franchise subtly,
All suitable, no beautiful.

Monumental your momentum.
For pence we mime all diatribe given to silence.
Falling free from obligations,
To wait, oblige, ferment behind
A true depth that you would lack anyway.
So pay attention!
