The poison is born anew

The drug is alive

The end is me and you

You make each dawn a switchblade

Betray all your best friends

In every breath a switchblade

In the mirror the eyes of a dead man

You make each dawn a switchblade

Betray all your best friends

In every breath a switchblade

And as our hope dissolves

We'll twist that knife again

Chains forged in life

Knuckles white, bent on revenge

What you don't know will hurt you

What you don't know will hurt you

You make each dawn a switchblade

Betray all your best friends

In every breath a switchblade

In the mirror the eyes of a dead man

You make each dawn a switchblade

Betray all your best friends

In every breath a switchblade
