Why not learn to accept this life that you are living?
Only a fool would pass up the chances they've been given
Realize that love surrounds you
And with no consequences to defend
Embrace the light that lets you start again

Dust off your wings before they grow moldy rotten
You know the feeling...Or have you forgotten
Just let the weightlessness surround you
Then the body will lift...The mind ascends
Embrace the light that lets you start again

I'm fearful...I'm afraid...I'm terrified
That you won't see the light my friend
Do I need to prove this, Lord knows I've tried
Time and time and time again
