Give me time to see you're right
You're perfect indeed, you're speaking Chinese.
Your laundry is clean, your future is bright
So don't give up without a fight

You've already seen all my best tricks
There's nothing worse than being dissed
It's kind of like dying up on a stage
Your love is a gentle flowing breeze
There's nothing worse than being teased
It's kind of like dancing on shaky ground
Hoping my shoes are in the lost and found

So, give me time to see you're right
You're perfect indeed, you're speaking Chinese.
Your laundry is clean, your future is bright
So don't give up without a fight

Nobody can tell that you're afraid
There's nothing but love in this parade
It's kind of like camping with no bugs around
Still hoping my shoes are in the lost and found

So, give me time to see you're right
You're perfect indeed, you're speaking Chinese.
Your laundry is clean, your future is bright
So don't give up without a fight
